OFFER LETTER

Decision making Instructions

- 1) Once a candidate receives an offer at any round during the counselling process, the candidate will be provided with one of the two sets of options – (a) “Accept and Freeze” OR “Reject”; (b) “Accept and Freeze” OR “Accept and Float” OR “Reject”.
- 2) Applicants who select 'Accept and Float' will be considered for the subsequent round of admission offer.
- 3) Applicants who select 'Accept and Freeze' will be allotted to the accepted seat. They will not be considered for subsequent rounds of admission offers.
- 4) If the Seat Acceptance Fee (SAF) is not paid before the deadline OR if none of the two options (Accept and Freeze / Accept and Float) is selected by the applicants, then they will not be considered for subsequent rounds of admission offers.
- 5) The deadline for seat acceptance will NOT be extended. So, you are advised to decide early and make your choice.
- 6) Once you make the SAF payment, please download the payment receipt or take a screenshot of the payment details. Secure it properly for future reference.
- 7) Please note your transaction ID for any future reference. If you accidentally pay twice, we'll refund your extra payment made.

NOTE: If a candidate receives an offer repeatedly, the candidate must take an action as mentioned above at each round of offer. Otherwise, the candidate will not be considered for subsequent rounds of admission offers. However, the SAF has to be paid only once.
